INCORPORATED

END of MONTH SALE of Inventory Odds and Ends

This monthly event is of such considerable importance that it requires a foreword of explanation. In former days two housecleanings a year were considered sufficient, hence the semiannual clearance sales. In these days of great volume and large stocks, safe merchandising demands that once a month we should sweep from our shelves all broken lots, overbought lines, soiled goods and odds and ends. The instruction to our department heads is to sacrifice such merchandise without regard to the cost.

You will profit largely if you will attend this sale just twelve times a year. Every item on this page is a bargain from any angle you may look at it.
